

Enagic India Notification!

EIKB-CIR-0720025

Dear Distributor Leaders,

Sub: Importance of providing applicants Email Id and Contact Number.

Referring to the subject matter this is to update you that multiple errors have been observed in the email id and contact number (handset) provided by the applicant in the application form and some applications it is not provided as well.

Providing the correct email address enable you to get the ID number on your email address, to receive the E-bill and Warranty Card of your purchase, notifications published by the company, etc. And coming soon email address and contact number will be the authentication parameter to complete your online KYC documents and Direct Seller Agreement. As such we appeal all to understand the importance of providing the correct email id and contact number in the application form and please note that it is mandatory to provide the email address and contact number of applicants with the application form.

All distributors and team leaders are requested to inform and encourage all team members, co distributors, and customers to provide the correct email address and contact number (handset) and use all capital letters to write email id in the application forms to avoid any errors.

We endeavour to ensure our distributors join hands and grow and enable you to expand your business by many folds and looking forward to your cooperation. We hope you will continue your support and patronage.

Sincerely,

For, Enagic India Kangen Water Pvt.Ltd.

08/09/2020