Dear Valuable Independent Distributors,

We hope this message finds you in good health and spirits.

Kindly be informed, as per the provisions of Policies and Procedures of the Company, under Section 4.10.2 it is stated that:

- i. Unless waived in writing by the Company upon application, the Company will consider each married couple as a single Enagic Direct Seller.
- ii. Husband and wife may sponsor each other directly, but shall not be sponsored in different channels of distribution. If the Company finds that the second spouse was sponsored in a different distribution channel for any reason after the initial spouse was sponsored, the Company reserves the right to change the status of a spouse from an Enagic Direct Seller into a Preferred Customer or transfer the Enagic Distributorship of a spouse into his or her immediate Enagic Direct Seller.
- iii. If a spouse is already an Enagic Direct Seller, the non-participating spouse may elect to become an Enagic Direct Seller but must join the same Enagic distributorship as his or her spouse or be directly sponsored by his or her spouse.
- iv. Should a husband/wife Enagic Direct Seller divorce, they should notify the Company as to how the Enagic Distributorship is to be managed thereafter. Otherwise, the Company will recognize the final judicial or adjudicatory disposition of the Enagic Distributorship.

Hence, it is to be notified that the Individuals who works as Distributors of the Company on behalf of their Spouse's ID, will be held jointly liable for any misconduct or issues arising under the concerned Client ID.

If the individual or Individual Distributor do not wish to be considered a Distributor associated with the Spouse's Client ID, a formal request to the Company for this change shall be submitted. Without such a request, both spouses will remain jointly liable for the actions associated with the Client ID. In the event of any issues, both will be responsible for resolving them.

Distributors who wish to submit such a request should do so using the application format provided by the Company.
